

I highly oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. I resent the banks attempting to limit this law which protects me from unwanted phone calls. This change would encroach upon my rights. My telephone exists for my benefit, not the benefit of companies wishing to sell something. Please do not change this law in any way.